

Santiago Moral Rubio of OpenSpring named to Hispanic Information Technology Executive Council's Prestigious 2020 HITEC 50 List

Madrid, 19 de Mayo de 2020 – OpenSpring announced Santiago Moral Rubio, VP Innovation & Cybersecurity, has been named to the HITEC 50 list of the most influential and notable Hispanic professionals in the technology industry.

The HITEC 50 list, highlighted since 2011, is a compilation of the top Hispanic Professionals in Technology across Latin America, Spain and Portugal to celebrate their leadership and achievements. Honorees are evaluated on their accomplishments in the ever-changing global landscape of technology and for their mentoring and professional development activities. Individuals included on the list were selected by the 2020 Awards Committee. Nominations are solicited from HITEC members and the general public.

“The HITEC 50 represents a group of technology leaders that we, as a global community, look to for inspiration, innovation and impact. It is an honor to recognize and celebrate the HITEC 50 leaders and to showcase HITEC’s global reach throughout Ibero-America,” said Guillermo Diaz, Jr., HITEC Chairman and CEO of Kloudspot, Inc.

“During these unprecedented times, we are proud to recognize the top 50 technology leaders across the Americas that have contributed to the advancements in their field, which ultimately, allows the world to stay connected,” said Omar Duque, HITEC President. “We are living in a world where physical contact is limited, yet we stay connected across the globe now more than ever and technology has been the driving force providing us this ability of interconnectedness. We are proud to recognize these global technology leaders,” Duque said.

"In OpenSpring we have a clear vocation to interconnect Spain, Latin America and the USA. We are honored to be part of the HITEC family and proud to receive this award". Santiago Moral Rubio commented.
